-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-2, 4-5, 8-11, 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mamula (2158943).

bottom surface, first and second opposed sides, each side extending from the top surface to the bottom surface, opposed first and second ends, each end extending from the top surface to the bottom surface and from the first side to the second side, the first end being wider than the second end at a surface selected from the top and bottom surfaces, the first end being larger in area than the second end, the first side including a first upper face extending from the top to a first ledge, the first ledge extending to a first lower face, the first ledge extending outwardly from the first side, the second side comprising a second upper face extending from the top to a second ledge, the second ledge extending to a second lower face (on the other side of the first lower surface), the second ledge extends outward from the second side, when the first side of the landscaping block is placed adjacent the second side of another landscaping block, the first and second ledges form an interlocking relationship (inherently capable of functioning as claimed), the block being positioned such that when the first side of the landscaping block is placed adjacent either the first or second side of another of the landscaping blocks, the first and second ledges forming an interlocking relationship(inherently so), the second side including a second upper face extending from the top to a second ledge, the second ledge extending to a second lower face.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-2, 4-5, 8-11, 19 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art shows different block designs.
